

Vocabulary Chapter 15

Tekst 1 Det er snart jul på side 194 – 195

Jul – Christmas

Å arrangere – To arrange, to cater

Et julebord – A Christmas party (for workplaces)

En hall – A hall

Et juletre - A Christmas tree

Fram og tilbake – Back and forth

Ren (eller rein) – Clean

En duk – A table cloth

En tallerken – A plate

En seviett – A napkin

(et) Bestikk – Cutlery

Å være i mål: Er du i mål? – Are you finished? / Have you finished everything you need to do?

Ikke helt – Not completely

Å mangle – Be lacking, be missing

En presang – En gave

Et smykke – (a piece of) jewellery

Å ha dårlig smak – To have bad taste

Noe til huset – Decoration or things to decorate the house

I år – This year

En rødbete – A beetroot

Å ikke ha råd – Not be able to afford (something)

En hemmelighet – A secret

Ennå – Yet

Svigerforeldre – Parents in law

Å være festkledd – To dressed for a party

For mye – Too much

Å angre (på noe) – To regret (something)

Dagen etter – The next day, the day after

Julebord på side 195:

En vennegjeng – A group of friends

Å pynte seg – To dress up (it refers to clothes, jewellery, make up, styling one's hair etc.)

Å foregå – To take place, to happen

En rett – A dish

Fakta på side 196:

Ulike typer julemat:

Ribbe = a traditional Christmas dish, ribs of pork meat

Pinnekjøtt = a traditional Christmas dish, sheep meat

Lutefisk = a traditional Christmas dish, fish (dried cod pickled in water and lye)

En gave – A gift

Nyttårsaften – New year's eve

Mange steder – Many places

Fyrverkeri – Fireworks

Påske – Easter

En helligdag – (public) Holiday

Palmesøndag – Palm Sunday

Skjærtorsdag – Maundy Thursday

Langfredag – Good Friday

Påskeaften – Easter (eve)